A Full Summer of Activities held at the Society

(Richland) This past summer saw a full calendar of activities from early May into late September. The Richland Farmers Market and concert series was conducted from the pavilion, back lawn and porch from mid-June until the end of October. The weekly Wednesday event began on June 18, with renown blues band "Dam Dog", and to kick things off the society offered free strawberry shortcakes. Also, on opening night the Lake Ontario Broom Riders danced to the delight of the crowd. The following week, former Half-Shire vice president Bill Brosnan and his niece Megan Bolton and her band "on the Porch" regaled attendees with their great music on the very porch/stage named in honor of Bill Brosnan.

This year we only had one weather-related cancellation, and most nights were very nice, though attendance varied. Our "Christmas in July" event, sponsored and led by Joe and Amber Skotnicki brought over one hundred people to see the famed "Skotnicki collection" of inflatable ornaments to took up a large section of the northeast lawn. The Skotnicki's sponsored "Kickin Up Dust" for music on that memorable night.

On another well-attended night, Rural and Migrant Ministry sponsored a floral design class that was conducted by our trustee Robin Warren Philips, as part of the RMMOC CNY Arts grant for 2025. Throughout the summer we were able to offer fresh vegetables and baked goods from Levi and Mary Zook on Peck Rd., taken on consignment. We also added vegetables from our own gardens tended by Sue Bristol, as they ripened.

Beyond the farmer's markets on Wednesday nights, each weekend was normally busy with one event or another. Three class reunions, including the annual 1980s Pulaski reunion on August 2, were held, three bus tours, and several funeral lunches, and two blocks of Pulaski School District workshops---each event kept us busy! In September we finally got the roofs completed on the north wing of the pavilion, and on the 2nd floor balcony on the barn, these were completed just in time for an evening wedding on October 11.

Also, in September our Amish friends stained the upper balcony and the Brosnan Stage/porch

President's Report, Shawn Doyle—

Where did our summer go, so fast! Since the day I returned on June 1, from my son's wedding in Florida, I have been at Half-Shire every weekend, and often 5-6 days a week. Once again, we "overbooked" multiple events, and on at least two occasions we had events upstairs and down, and in our main hall and the barn. 2026 looks to be very busy with the American 250th celebrations. In 2026 we are going to limit reserved dates for rentals of the building as we have less staff to manage these events, and catering takes us away from our principal mission and activities. (This is a long-winded explanation for another late newsletter).

Despite the overbooked schedule, our team has accomplished a great deal this summer, despite all the events. Venita Ackley has worked on sorting and accessioning the last of the Widrig estate papers, a project that has been ongoing since 2015. Venita next went on to several smaller collections, and as we write she is working on finishing the Hollis-Kastler collection of books, photos and family history from our trustee Margaret Kastler. Pat Miller assisted Venita this summer, and spent a great deal of time completing the inventory of our extensive old sheet music collection, mainly from George Widrig.

In the SE classroom Betty Warren and Joanne Hubbard have been working at least once a week to refine the organization of our amazing textbook and school yearbook collections. This year working with the Historical Association of South Jefferson and Henderson Historical Societies, we have added yearbooks from Adams, Henderson and added them to our Belleville Collection, while these schools are outside of our principal area of research we have many researchers who enjoy this collection.

Our master gardener, Sue Bristol, has been dedicated to the gardens. We had a good variety of vegetables and herbs throughout the summer and used these for many meals and events. The flowers across the grounds did decently despite the dry July-August period. The roses were particularly nice!

Jim FitzGerald, our neighbor to the south and east, has been a huge asset to our operation throughout the year, assisting with snow removal in the winter and lawn care through the summer. Jim also has been a great help with many events we have hosted.

Sharon Turo, Shelby Miller and Susie Spencer have been working in the Pomeroy room on inventories and accessions through the year, keeping very busy. Fay Colvin and I generally work on obituaries and misc. other tasks on Fridays, and our devoted secretary Charlotte DeGaetano keeps up with our correspondence and records.

Special thanks to the Pulaski Lions Club, who staffed the food truck during our farmers market, and also allowed us to use their club room for the wrapping of newspaper books (still ongoing) and other larger projects.

Remembering Friends (March-October 1, 2025)

(Half-Shire volunteers clip from the Pulaski, Camden, and Watertown newspapers weekly and scan the internet for death notices of significance to the area. We have a comprehensive index available online on our website. We select significant deaths from this large collection that touched our organization, officers, members, or communities. We try to represent our fifteen towns and their people in all we do, and this small selection is just a sample of our weekly additions; full obituaries are in our collection.)

Tug Hill Regional Bibles: Matthew & Asenath (Hollis) Presler/Presley

(Orwell/Boylston) Between 1834 and 1907 Currier and Ives printed and sold these colorful family registers, for completion and framed display in homes. This one was given to Half-Shire by the late Ellen Presley Wild (1915-2005) and contains the earlier records we have for the Matthew and Asenath (Hollis) Presler family. The earliest Presler in America was Antoni Presler (1705), who immigrated to what is now Ulster County, New York Colony from Hochstadt, Sudliche Weinstrasse, in modern Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany. The chart appears to be a very early print, likely from the mid-1860s.

Matthew Presler, Jr. was born in Charlton, Saratoga County, New York in 1808 the son of Matthew & Abigail Tifft. The Presler family arrived in what is now Oswego County in about 1803, having lived for a time in Ellisburg, Jefferson County. Matthew Jr. married a neighboring young lady in 1830, Asenath Hollis, who was daughter of Joshua & Betsey (Adams) Hollis. The Hollis and Adams families both arrived in Orwell from New England about 1805. The Presler family were respectable, educated farmers, who had a strong Christian faith. Their first two children were born in Ellisburg, while the remaining five were born in Orwell. Their children later changed the spelling of their name to "Presley", which the main line of the family use today.

The following transcriptions are as they appear, with known pertinent additions found in parenthesis, most all entries are said to be in the hand of Aseneth H. Presler.

William and his first wife Theodosia (Cogswell) Presley had four children. By his second wife, Ellen Halsy, William had five other children, including Arthur Presley, the father of the late Ellen Wild.

As part of this collection, Half-Shire has similar family records for both of William Presley's families.

Bible/Grave Marker Restoration Fund

Half-Shire has a family Bible collection that spans 300 years. We have been sending our Bibles in most need of repair to Robert Lomascolo of Aurora, NY. We have been delighted with his expert craftsmanship and care in the repair and restoration of these priceless tomes that tell the story of our regional families, often long before vital records were kept in New York. We gratefully accept donations towards this ongoing important work.

Both families left Redfield, and the two ladies met for the first time in 70 years, during their common cousin Mike Noble's funeral lunchn on May 17th in our Southwest classroom. Both decided they would have been great friends had they stayed in Redfield and graduated at Sandy Creek in 1966!

The Raleigh Morey family owned the Redfield Hotel from 1946-1955, and moved to Skaneateles, Diane and her family moved to Rome after the death of her father in 1955.

Pomeroy Patriot Burial Signs dedicated across the Half-Shire Towns

(Oswego County) As part of the aggressive effort led by Oswego County Historian Debra Allen, to locate and mark each cemetery with a Revolutionary War Patriot Burial with a Pomeroy Foundation sign, we have marked five cemeteries in the northern Oswego County region this year. On October 11, we unveiled three signs in the towns of Williamstown and Albion. We began in Fairview cemetery in Williamstown with a sign that notes at least two patriots are proven that well cared for cemetery. Samule Plumb and Alexander Stone are both well marked here. Additionally, eight other patriots from the American Revolution who were part of the history of the town, but whose burials could not be proven beyond a reasonable doubt or are buried elsewhere-- were honored in the program

Town officials led by Supervisor Robert Oakes, Town Clerk Faith Baker, Highway Superintendent

Henry Allen and Town Historian Beverly

Carusone were present, as well as many members of the community, and members of the DAR and SAR.

Following this unveiling, many of the group went on to Maplelawn Cemetery in Dugway on St. Rte. 104 where Cemetery Board President Shawn Doyle and Secretary/Treasurer Charlotte DeGaetano were joined by Albion Town Supervisor Mike Faulkner and his wife Mary, Town Historian Florence Gardner as we all several others. Shirley Hanley, Regent, and Tasha and Paula Molner from the DAR were present in addition to others. At Dugway Phillip Morris/Morse was honored for his service. The Molner ladies have cleaned his stone, as well as others in the old section. Tasha spoke on the difficulty that Phillip had in obtaining a pension for his service due to the inability to prove his service for many years. He had begun service as a seven-year-old child helping to convey baggage for the Continental Army. Several of his male relations also served.

The day culminated in the sign in Salmon River Cemetery on Rte. 13 in Pineville. Albion Town Supervisor Mike Faulkner and his wife Mary, Cemetery officials Fran Scriber and Joanne Blair were present as well as Shawn Doyle from SAR and Regent Shirley Hanley, Tasha and Paula Molnar from the DAR. At Pineville we honored Reuben Bennett for his service. After this last event many adjourned to Half-Shire for a luncheon of chicken and biscuits. We left early as the weather was foreboding rain, and we missed the Joyce Bennett Ezzo, a great-great grandchild of Reuben. We apologize to Joyce for missing her and thank her for her love of history and interest.

(On Saturday November 1, 2025, a large gathering of SAR officials will meet in two Pulaski Village cemeteries to honor 28 Patriots.)

historian@oswegocounty.com 315-349-8460. Deb leads the Oswego County 250th Committee, and also is the lead compiler of the book being researched on all of the revolutionary war soldiers who lived in, died in or are buried in Oswego County. The committee meets monthly and also sponsors a Revolutionary War Roundtable that alternates between Oswego and Half-Shire each month, the fourth Monday at 10:30 am. All are welcome.

Deb has been busy working on Pomeroy Patriot sign applications also (see page 12 for more on this!)

Albion—Florence Gardner, Historian: Box 394, Altmar, NY 13302. 315-298-5723. Florence worked with Deb and Shawn on the Pomeroy Patriot Signs for Dugway and Pineville Cemetery. She has also been assisting Bev Carusone in Williamstown on research on various families. This summer, Redfield Trustee Maureen Stedman placed a new stone on the grave of her brother Roy Stedman in Pineville Cemetery. A stone for a baby sister will be placed next to this in the spring.

Amboy—Vacant. The town of Amboy is searching for a new historian. Deb Allen and Shawn Doyle have found proof of two more Revolutionary War soldiers who lived in Amboy. To date, the only man proven had been Jesse Kinne (1764-1851) who is buried in a private cemetery. New record searches have found: Thomas Brown Jr. (1755-1830), Jacob Christman (c1770-after 1844), Isaac Cooper (1760-1837), George Dunbar (c1761-1849), Joshua Hall (1751-1823), Billings Worden (1756-1851) These men lived at one time in Amboy and are under review currently.

Boylston—Roxanne Ferguson, Historian: 5444 County Rte. 50, Richland, NY 13144. We were pleased to learn that the Wells Family Cemetery in Boylston has been "cleaned up" nicely by the landowner. Peter Wells Jr. (1787-1854), son of a Revolutionary War soldier buried in the adjacent town of Ellisburg, settled in North Boylston and along with several family members is buried on the old family farm. Leon VanWie, 1,000 Island SAR President and cousin to the property owners shared photos of the cemetery recently with us. Peter Wells, Jr served in the War of 1812.

Florence (Oneida County)—Sherry McNamara, Historian:

11899 Tompkins Corners, Florence Rd., Camden, NY 13316. 315-245-0487. The annual mass at St. Mary's in Florence was held on September 21st. At least twenty Half-Shire members were present as President Doyle scanned the capacity crowd. Special thanks to the Clark family, Mike, Matt, Martin and Monica who do a superb job with this annual event, and also to Father John Hogan who is an Oswego Irishman fills the late Bishop Costello's shoes pretty well each year!

Montague (Lewis County)--Dave Andolora, Historian:

c/o 6353 Salmon River Road, Lowville, NY 13367. In our search for area Revolutionary War graves we have not neglected our smallest town in the borderlands of the Shire. In Liberty Cemetery, Montague one Samuel Garnsey lies at rest. Samuel was born in Rehoboth, Massachusetts on October 3, 1762 and died in Clayton, NY in September 1843. He married Jerusha Darling (1761-1839), who is buried in West Lowville Rural Cemetery. Samuel has no gravestone shown on Find a Grave (we will send Grave Geeks to check this out, if not, and if we can prove he is here, we will get him a new stone.)

Garnsey lived in Dummerston, Vt after the War, and eight of his nine children can be found in that vicinity in the Vermont records, while the eldest, Samuel Jr. was born in Massachusetts in 1784. Research continues.

New Haven—Kelly Miller PO 141, New Haven, NY 13121; 315-963-3900. historian@newhavenny.com
The Revolutionary War project hit “paydirt” this summer when evidence was found that founding father of the town, Soloman Warren Smith (1749-1824) is likely the same Soloman Smith listed in Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the Revolution. Deb Allen is working to prove this, will be significant for the many descendants in the town.

Orwell—George Stevens, Historian: 7411 Co. Rte. 15, Lacona, NY 13083. itsallhighadventure@yahoo.com. 315-404-7134. George Stevens has been very busy this summer, he had a nice exhibit at the Old Home Days in June, and again at the Oswego County Fair in July. George stops by Half-Shire frequently in his research.

Osceola (Lewis County)—Historian Tammy Becker
2630 Prince Brook Rd., Redfield, NY 13437 Beckertammy604@gmail.com. Leona reports that the Osceola Historical Society has been working on identifying the graves of all of its veterans, to ensure all are counted and properly flagged. So far there does not seem to be any Revolutionary War veterans in the town cemeteries. The Clemens cemetery in the north end does hold many oof the descendants of Jacob Clemens, whom Leona joined DAR under.

Recently we have been working with a Clemens researcher, Paul Hanson, who has some records on these families we did not have. Hanson continues to share his records with us as we compare files.

Parish—Bridgett Swartz, Historian: P.O. Box 195, Parish, NY 13131. The Village of Parish Cemetery now has a Pomeroy Patriot sign to note the service of Timothy Rider and Nathan Franklin. A cenotaph stone for Tunis Vrooman is also on that family lot. Other Parish soldier references in the pensions have not shown burial sites. The SAR and DAR will plan a proper dedication of the sign in the spring.

Redfield—Liz Grant Historian: 722 Co. Rte. 47, Redfield, NY 13437. 315-599-7735. The Redfield Old Home Days Aug 30-31 was well attended. Half-Shire staffed a booth there as normal and had many visitors. On the second day Roger Clark stopped by for the afternoon with daughter Theresa Switzer and sister-in-law Charlotte DeGaetano. Roger had many longtime friends stop by, including M. Joyce Yerdon LaCelle, who gave her old friend a hug and caught up for some time, while taking a break from the Redfield Auxiliary Booth she leads up. The Redfield Baked goods wheel was a huge hit, with the Warren and Walker families cleaning it out good during their annual competition while the Ballou-McCaw reunion was held on August 30. Dancing on Saturday night brought in hundreds of people to hear Still Kickin. We caught our Osceola Trustee Leona Chereshnoski on the dance floor with her son Peter.

Pulaski Historical Society and Half-Shire each were very busy through the summer months. The Monday Historical Society sadly dissolved this year after over 120 years as a ladies club. One of the last projects they were involved in was the placement of a Pomeroy Marker by the historic Syracuse Northern Railroad arches along the north bank of the Salmon River. A grant to stabilize and preserve the arches was written by Mayor Jan Tighe, and in 2024 work was completed. On August 12, the Pomeroy sign was dedicated.

On November 1, 2025, two sign dedications are planned for Pulaski Village and Riverside Cemeteries. A planned dedication for Sand Hill/Daysville has been delayed until the sign can be moved, as it was mistakenly placed in front of the broken headstone of Benjamin VanEtten. (on top of his grave!) Further Pomeroy signs over the next years will be placed in Willis/South Richland, McClelland, Holmes Family, Browns Landing, Brookside Cemetery and Ferguson/Blue Springs in Richland Hamlet

Genealogical Journey: Honoring a Revolutionary Legacy

By Mary B. Parrish

In July 2024, Jarret Parrish, son of SCHRC Administrative Assistant Mary Parrish, traveled to New York to conduct genealogical research on the Meigs and Maltby family lines. His efforts led him to the Half-Shire Historical Society in Richland, New York, where he collaborated with its president, Shawn P. Doyle. Through Doyle's support, Jarret connected with extended relatives and resolved several long-standing family mysteries. Notably, he identified numerous previously unknown photographs in the Society's archive.

During his visit, Jarret traveled to Barnard Cemetery, located north of Pulaski, New York, to pay respects at the burial site of his sixth great-grandfather, Dr. Jesse Meigs. Although Jesse's final resting place was confirmed, a gravestone was absent.

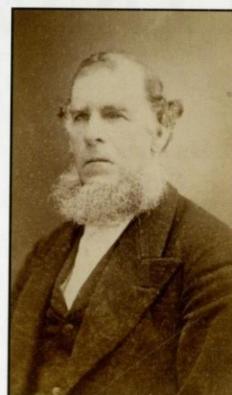

Jesse Meigs, born on March 7, 1763, in Connecticut, was the youngest child of Dr. John and Rebecca (Clark) Meigs. He married Hannah Pritchard on February 6, 1782, in Bethlehem, Connecticut, and together they had eight children. A respected physician in Litchfield County, Connecticut, Jesse's service in the Revolutionary War is documented in Connecticut Men in the Revolution, where he is listed as a member of Captain David Leavenworth's Company in Colonel Mosley's Regiment, stationed at Horseneck. By 1807, he had relocated to Richland Township, Oswego County, New York, where he remained until his death on April 22, 1838.

Jesse's grandson, John Decraso Parrish, immigrated to Sheboygan County, Wisconsin, in 1844. John was among the early settlers with ties to Oswego County. Other pioneering families from Oswego and nearby Jefferson County that settled in Sheboygan County include Carpenter, Harmon, Underhill, Bemis, Eastman, Curtiss, and Thackray.

John Decraso Parrish, grandson of Jesse Meigs, was a pioneer of Sheboygan County.

In April 2025, Doyle informed Jarret that the Half-Shire Historical Society had secured a gravestone for Jesse Meigs, with a dedication ceremony planned by the Sons of the American Revolution for July 5. Jarret and Mary returned to New York to attend the event and commemorate Jesse's contributions.

During their visit, they met Pulaski Mayor Jan Tighe. Interestingly, her parents, Norbert and Norma Schell, resided in Sheboygan for 38 years, with Norbert serving as an administrator at Lakeshore Technical Institute (now Lakeshore College). The trip also provided further opportunities to connect with distant cousins and local historians, deepening the Parrish family's rich historical narrative. 🍃

Captain Delos Gary Remembered

By Natalie J. Woodall, PhD

(Oswego City) Captain Delos Gary was a soldier in Co. G, 147th Regiment from 1862-1863. Wounded severely at the battle of Gettysburg on July 1, 1863, he was discharged for disability late in the year.

0 Born on September 10, 1831, in Oneida County, NY, he was the son of Rev. George Gary and Elizabeth Armitage. Although his life was cut short by tuberculosis, he managed to acquire an impressive resume during his thirty-nine years on earth. He taught at Mexico Academy and was the first principal of Oswego High School. He studied law and became a successful attorney in practice with his brother-in-law, Charles T. Richardson. At the time of his death on July 27, 1870, he was on leave from his position as Oswego city judge. He was also a member of Oswego Lodge No. 127 F & A M.

Captain Gary is buried in Riverside Cemetery, Scriba. For many years his grave has been marked with a broken gravestone but in August 2025 that problem was corrected. Half-Shire Historical Society purchased a new stone to be erected adjacent to the original. Mr. Mark Crandall, Thousand Islands

Chapter, SAR, and several anonymous donors generously paid for installing the monument on the grave.

On August 16, a small group gathered at Riverside Cemetery to dedicate the new stone while others watched the ceremony via ZOOM. Half-Shire President Shawn P. Volunteer Spotlight: Angela Moonan

(Jacksonville, Florida)
Angela Kimball Moonan, a native of the Half-Shire region with deep roots in the Eastern Lake Ontario/Tug Hill region has designed and maintained our website for nearly ten years. The daughter of the late Rick, and Jane (Bontomase) Kimball, Angela is currently a corporate storyteller, well-being strategist, and founder of Living Well...Today.

Angela cites the enduring examples of her grandparents, Tony and Pearl (Flagg) Bontomase—lifelong residents of Pulaski, and longtime active members of Half-Shire. Her devotion to the region has remained a constant throughout her life, from her early days as Miss Oswego County to her ongoing efforts supporting local businesses, leaders and communities.

Angela blends strategy with soul, helping organizations across industries—from healthcare to finance to law—communicate with clarity, connect with purpose, and build cultures of resilience and harmony.

Through her signature Harmoney Method, the Mindful Leader Program, and the ChooseWELL workplace well-being program, she offers tools for growth, leadership and living well—today and every day.

Angela resides on the First Coast, in Jacksonville, Florida and continues to nurture her singing, floral arranging, photography, and connection to nature.

We at Half-Shire are very grateful to Angela for the work she has done and continues to do for our organization. We share her wonderful memories of her grandparents and think of Pearl every time we descend the main staircase where a beautiful stained glass window is mounted to catch the light into the middle 2nd floor window.
